THE CLERK: We're on the record, Docket Number MI22W1174, Amanda Kaelblein v. Michael Speight.

THE COURT: All right. It's now 10:49 a.m. on Thursday, November 3 of the year 2022. This is Judge Phelan. I am a Massachusetts Probate and Family Court Judge, and today I'm hearing this Massachusetts Department of Revenue Child Support case, on my computer screen using zoom. On my screen, I see a name. It says Amanda Kaelblein, is that you, Amanda?

MS. KAELBLEIN: It is, yes.

THE COURT: Is it all right if I call you Amanda during the hearing?

MS. KAELBLEIN: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. And another name I see on my screen, it says Michael Speight. Is that you, Michael?

MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Is it all right if I call you Michael today during the hearing?

MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And the other person who's with us, I also see his name on the screen. This is Attorney Stephan. He is a lawyer, but he does not work for me or the Judges. He does work for the Massachusetts Department of Revenue Child Support Office. So what we're going to do here before Amanda, Michael and I talk back and forth about what the right amount of child support should be, I'm going to ask Attorney Stephan to first -- information about this case. Attorney Stephan, go ahead.

MR. STEPHAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Before you today is a support complaint filed by the Department seeking support for the party's five year old child. The Department conferenced the case this morning and the defendant refused to submit a financial statement. And I was told he was quite abusive to the DOR worker who tried to conference the case with the parties. As a result of him having failed to provide us with his financial statement, we used the wage information we have for the defendant from his employer for the last quarter, and that results in a weekly gross average of around $1,100. And the resulting guidelines amount, Judge, is $228 based on his wage reported from his employer. The Department is asking that a support judgment enter today for $228 a week.

THE COURT: Well, there are a couple of pieces of information I still need.

MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, Your Honor, Your Honor -- Your

THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael, Michael, just hold on a second.

Attorney Stephan, there's some information I need. Number one, what was the date of service on Michael?

MR. STEPHAN: August 19th, Your Honor. 1 THE COURT: All right. And you said the most -- you said 2 the recent quarter or the last quarter, I'm assuming third 3 quarter of 2022 reported wages. Is that what you mean? 4 MR. STEPHAN: That's correct. Yes. His weekly --5 THE COURT: And the other piece of -- the other piece of 6 7 info --MR. STEPHAN: The weekly gross -- the weekly gross was 8 9 1142. THE COURT: All right. And the other piece of --10 MR. SPEIGHT: That's not true. 11 THE COURT: -- information I need is, is Amanda receiving a 12 cash public benefit from the state of Massachusetts? 13 MR. STEPHAN: No, Your Honor. She -- her weekly gross 14 income is 1326. 15 THE COURT: Any credits to either Amanda or Michael in the 16 calculation of the child support? 17 MR. STEPHAN: Yes, there was health insurance was 85 and 18 dental and vision was 23. 19 THE COURT: So who's that for? Michael or Amanda? 20 MR. STEPHAN: Let me just double check, Judge. MR. SPEIGHT: I pay 11.75 an hour for health insurance. 21 22 For me and my --THE COURT: That was for -- Michael, hold on, Michael. 23 I'm talking to Attorney Stephan. I'll get to you in a minute. 24 25

           MR. STEPHAN: Mother was given credit for $85 a week she pays for health insurance and $23 a week she pays for dental and vision. He didn't submit a financial, Judge, so we weren't able 3 4
      to -- 5
           THE COURT: Okay.
          MR. STEPHAN: -- get any information from him.
  6
  7
          MR. SPEIGHT: That's -- that's -- that's not true.
      submitted it to New Hampshire.

  9
           THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael -- 10
          MR. SPEIGHT: I submitted it -- 11
           THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael, please listen to me.
 12
      So what we're going to do here is I'm going to explain to you first how we calculate the child support that Attorney Stephan - 13 14
          MR. SPEIGHT: I already know how you calculate it. You're 15 16 the only state -- 17
          THE COURT: Michael --
          MR. SPEIGHT: -- in the whole country -- 18 19
          THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael --
         MR. SPEIGHT: -- that didn't reform your child support 20 21 laws.
         THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael, this 22 is the last time I'm going to caution you. Stop talking over 23 me. When I ask you to stop talking, I need you to stop talking.
24
```

If you do not comply with that instruction, I'm going to put you on mute. I don't want to have to do that, Michael. But if you keep interrupting me and talking over me, you will be on mute.

1 7

So now I'm going to explain to you how Attorney Stephan came to $228 per week. In Massachusetts, we use a formula. It's called the Child Support Guidelines Formula. It's based on the average gross, gross means before they take out the taxes, average gross weekly income of both the mother and the father. And that gets put into a computer formula. So Amanda reported that she was earning $1,326 gross, and she also reported that she was paying $85 a week health insurance, $23 a week dental and vision insurance. We didn't know any information about Michael because apparently the information didn't come forth in the conversation that Michael had this morning with the DOR worker. So if you are paying for health insurance or dental and vision, if you want to get credit for that, Michael, to lower the child support amount, you need to tell us that information. You should have told that to DOR this morning.

So what Attorney Stephan did, was he went into the DOR database and discovered that for the third quarter of the year, 2022, third quarter means the months of July, August, and September, your employer, Michael, reported to DOR that they paid you a certain amount of money. And over that 13 week period, your average gross was $1,142 per week.

So let me ask you this, Michael. Do you pay for or is it taken out of your pay, health insurance? Michael?

ı
             MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, I pay 11.75 an hour. It's $22,000 a 2 year I pay for health insurance, dental, vision, everything.
     3
        And -- and I'm the primary insurer because I'm older than she is. So I pay $22,000 --
     5
             THE COURT: So you said you paid -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael --
    6
    7
            MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.
    8
            THE COURT: Michael, you said $22,000. Is it exactly 9
       $22,000, or is it a little bit more or a little bit less?
   10
            MR. SPEIGHT: It's 11.75 times 1200 hours.
   11
            THE COURT: 11.75 times 1200 hours. All right, let me just calculate that. 11.75 times 1200 hours, that comes out to 12
      $14,100. So did I make a mistake in my math, or didn't you say 13 14 $22,000?
           MR. SPEIGHT: No. No, sometimes I work over 1500 hours and 15
      I end up paying more.
  16
          THE COURT: All right, so if it's 14,100 over the course of 17 a year, if I divide that by 52 weeks. That's an average of $271 18 a week for health and dental and vision. Does that sound right, 19 20 Michael?
21
         MR. SPEIGHT: Yes.
22
         THE COURT: Okay, so now we know one more piece of information. While I'm talking to Michael, Attorney Stephan, if 23 you could put that into the computer formula and credit Michael 24 for the $271, health, dental, and vision.
25

Okay, next question, Michael, I'm going to ask you all about your expenses in a minute. Your rent, your mortgage, food, internet, cable, cell phone, car, credit cards, all those kinds of things. But before I do, that, the 228, again, that was arrived at by the computer formula, the Child Support Guidelines Formula by Attorney Stephan, without knowing the information from Michael that he was paying an average of $271 a week for health, dental, and vision. So we'll get the new number in a minute.

MR. STEPHAN: 182, Judge.

THE COURT: 182. All right, so instead of 228, it's now down to 182 is the computer formula amount.

So before I ask you, Michael, all about those expenses, let me ask you this. Is there an amount of child support that you think you could afford to pay and still have enough left over from your pay to pay your own living expenses, Michael, is there an amount you have in mind?

MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, I've been giving her $200 a week without being ordered to, I don't want the DOR in my life. You can ask her. Ever since she left, I've been giving her $200 a week. And some weeks, I gave her money for school clothes.

Some -- some weeks, I gave her extra money to get my daughter things. I asked her if my daughter needed school clothes.

There's no reason that we -THE COURT: Michael --

```
MR. SPEIGHT: -- that -- there's no reason -- what?
           THE COURT: Michael, let me -- let me explain something.
    ı
      The reason -- the reason we're here today is that Amanda asked 2 3
      the Department of Revenue for assistance. She didn't ask him 4 for money. She asked him for assistance in collecting child 5 support. So you told me that you were paying -- 6
           MR. SPEIGHT: She --
   7
           THE COURT: Michael -- Michael, you just told me you were 8 paying $200 a week voluntarily. Let me ask you, Amanda, is that 9 accurate or not?
  10
          MS. KAELBLEIN: It's accurate for the last few months, 11
      that's correct.
  12
          THE COURT: Okay, so now we've established that the past 13 few months -- 14
          MR. SPEIGHT: And you -- and you -- 15
          THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- 16
          MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.
 17
          THE COURT: Nyle, are you there?
 18
         THE CLERK: Yeah.
19
         THE COURT: Put Michael on mute. He's not following my 20 instructions. He keeps interrupting.
21
         THE CLERK: Okay.
22
         THE COURT: Put him on mute.
23
         THE CLERK: All right.
24
        THE COURT: Let the record -- let the tape recording show
```

١ that we have put Michael on mute. He can still hear what we are 2 saying, but we've put him on mute due to his constant 3 interruption and his refusal to follow the Judge's instructions. 4 So Amanda agrees with Michael that he's been paying her 5 about $200 a week voluntarily for the past few months. So it 6 sounds like right now, the -- because he's paying the health 7 insurance he pays -- do you think that that's accurate, Amanda? 8 I don't know if you know Michael's business or not, but he says he's paying what -- what amounts to an average of $271 a week 9 for health, dental, and vision insurance. Does that sound 10 11 accurate to you, Amanda? MS. KAELBLEIN: So the average -- it may be accurate, but 12 it's -- it's involved in his earnings that you already 13 calculated prior to taking it out. That's what they take out of 14 his pay, including his pension and annuity. So his salary was 15 correct with the insurance taking out of it. 16 17 THE COURT: So are you --18 MR. STEPHAN: You mean before or after? 19 THE COURT: Are you saying --MS. KAELBLEIN: I'm saying the number that you have from 20 the DOR, it already includes the insurance being taken out of 21 it. It's not -- it's not taken separately. 22 THE COURT: All right, so -- so, again, Amanda, you may or 23 may not know his business. I don't know if you have any 24 25 communication with Michael or not, but he told me that at the rate of 11.75 an hour for 1200 hours a year, that's his debit, so to speak, out of his pay for health, dental and vision 2 coverage, that averages $271 a week. So right now, -- ١

         MS. KAELBLEIN: Yeah. I'm sorry.
 4
         THE COURT: Right now, I'm just focused on his health, 5 dental and vision. I'm not focused on his -- 6
 7
        MS. KAELBLEIN: Judge, with all due respect, I -- I -- he didn't turn in the information. So I'm not -- H
         THE COURT: Right. So I'm just ask -- yeah, I'm just 9 asking you if you know, if you don't know, that's okay, 10 11 MS. KAELBLEIN: Yeah, I don't -- I don't know if that's accurate, and I would like to know if that's accurate.
12
13
         THE COURT: Okay.
14
         MS. KAELBLEIN: (Inaudible at 13:14:00, low audio.) 15
         MR. STEPHAN: Judge, --
         THE COURT: Attorney Stephan -- Attorney Stephan -- 16
17
         MR. STEPHAN: Sure --
         THE COURT: Attorney Stephan -- Attorney Stephan, can I 18 speak? My question to you, Attorney Stephan, is this, the third 19 quarter, 2022 wage reporting that you mentioned to me, are you 20 sure it's $1,142 gross average per week?
21
22
         MR. STEPHAN: Yes, Your Honor.
         THE COURT: Okay. And you got that from wage reporting 23 from the employer? Would that be accurate?
24
         MR. STEPHAN: Yes. He's a union worker. He's working at a 25

steel company.

THE COURT: All right, so, Amanda, even without me asking Michael his expenses, if it's accurate that he does pay or gets taken out of his pay, $271 per week, the Child Support Guideline amount by law, which I'm supposed to order him to pay even without knowing his expenses, his -- his expenses actually might that amount, it's 182 a week, which is less than the $200 paying you that for the past few months. So what do you want me to do, Amanda? Do -- so this is a -- a support complaint. Are do you want me to take Michael off mute and ask him about his expenses, which might affect the 182 guideline amount? What

MS. KAELBLEIN: Judge, my only question is, I mean, I -- we recently separated, so I have been with him for the last five years. So I also have his employers that he does side work for. And so I would be happy with the $228 that you just mentioned. Unless you want me to pass over the names of the people that he works for on the side and gets paid cash for

THE COURT: All right, so what we're going to do here is, Nyle, if you're with us still, if you could take Michael off mute. But before you do that, I need Michael to answer the question. This is my question, Michael. Amanda says that she has some kind of information or she believes that you also do side work and get paid cash. And I think what I'm hearing is 1 that maybe that's not showing up on the wage reporting in the 2

```
14
   DOR database. So my question to you, Michael, is, number one, 3 do you work on the side? And if so, how much money do you earn?
4
5
   Michael.
        Nyle, you can take them off mute.
        THE CLERK: Mr. Speight, you're going to have to click on mute on your phone.
        THE COURT: Michael, are you with us?
       MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah, I do side work sometimes, Your Honor.
  Sometimes. It depends if it's available or not.
        THE COURT: All right. Can you give me an example now, now is the month of November. From January 1 of this year to now, do you have any estimation of how much you might have earned from the side work?
        MR. SPEIGHT: Probably about $2,000, $3,000. I haven't been doing much side work.
        THE COURT: Okay. 2000 or 3,000. So that would be like, maybe $40 a week, $60 a week. Somewhere around there. I'm not sure that would increase the numbers that much if that's the -- if that's the case, Amanda.
        Michael, is it -- what is it, like, a construction company?
  A landscaping company? Masonry. What do you do on the side work?
```

MR. SPEIGHT: I -- I go to union guys' houses and I help for him and he finishes it. Plowing, sometimes shoveling.

  3 mean, it all depends, Your Honor, if the work is available, I 4 take it. Lately I haven't been taking any because I've been 5 concentrating on getting back to work for the union. Right now 6
     I'm on unemployment and I get $724 a week. DOR knows that -- 7

MS. KAELBLEIN: Unfortunately, none of this is accurate just because I know his income obviously based off of the last five years. Your Honor, am I able to ask, is Michael willing to -- he goes by Sean to me. I'm used to calling him Sean. Sorry, but it's a weird thing, Michael, but is Michael willing to settle at the 228 and just be done with this? THE COURT: Michael she -- she says that she'll accept 228 a week. Is that something you're interested in or not? MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, we can settle on it, but I'm appealing it to Superior Court because the child hasn't lived in Massachusetts for six months. THE COURT: Amanda --MS. KAELBLEIN: Your Honor, he's doing the settlement dance. THE COURT: -- so he says -- hold on a second. Hold on a second. Hold on a second, both of you. Amanda, this question is for you. Michael says that the child hasn't lived in Massachusetts. Now, that doesn't mean that she's not entitled to child support. What matters is, does 19 the child actually reside with Amanda? Amanda, does the child 20 reside with you? 21 22 MS. KAELBLEIN: She does. Yeah. 23 THE COURT: All right. What state do you live in, Amanda? MS. KAELBLEIN: Massachusetts. 24

THE COURT: All right. So, Michael, why do you think the child doesn't live in Massachusetts? What information do you ı

   2 have?
          MR. SPEIGHT: I didn't -- I didn't say that, Your Honor.
   3
      What I said is, it's a child state law, home state law. The 4 child has to live in a state for six months before any -- 5 anything can be filed. Also, Derry Family District Court 6 already ruled they have jurisdiction over this case. Stephan 7 knows that. My lawyer talked to Stephan.
  8 9
          THE COURT: So, Amanda -- 10
          MS. KAELBLEIN: Your Honor, this is -- 11
         MR. SPEIGHT: This is already -- 12
         THE COURT: Amanda -- no, no, no. Stop. Michael -- Michael, please. It's Amanda's turn. I'm trying to ask a 13
14 15
         Amanda, did you recently live in New Hampshire and moved to Massachusetts?
16
17
         MS. KAELBLEIN: My legal address and Vivian's legal address, her schooling, her ABA services for her autism have 18 always been in Massachusetts. I don't -- I don't see how this 19 pertains, honestly, just because this is for child support.
20
    I do have to say, we did reside with Michael for a short period 21 of time and we left due to a dangerous situation. And he had 22
    asked us to leave because of the dangerous -- dangerous -- 23
         THE COURT: All right. So, Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, I 24 need you to focus on my question. You said you didn't think it 25
```

```
mattered. It does matter.
 ı
         MS. KAELBLEIN: Okay.
2
         THE COURT: Did another State Court, specifically New 3
   Hampshire, did they already issue a child support order 4 involving this child and Michael?
5
         MS. KAELBLEIN: No, they have not.
6
7
         THE COURT: Is that correct, Michael?
         MR. SPEIGHT: They're ordering on the 15th, Your Honor.
8 9
    The child has been out of New Hampshire five months now.
10
    They're ordering the child support and visitation on the 15th.
    I haven't seen my daughter in five months, Your Honor.
11
         THE COURT: All right. So -- so Michael -- Michael -- 12 13
    Michael, let me ask you this.
14
          So it sounds to me, Michael, that there's a case that was 15 already filed in the state of New Hampshire and you're waiting 16 for a hearing. Is that right, Michael?
          MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. June 3rd, the case was filed for 17 custody and child support. And they -- they -- 18
          THE COURT: All right. So who filed -- Michael -- Michael 19
     -- Michael -- Michael, who filed the case? Was it you or 20 21 Amanda?
          MR. SPEIGHT: I -- I did.
22
          THE COURT: All right. So, Amanda, did Michael file a case 23 involving custody and child support regarding this -- 24
          MS. KAELBLEIN: He did.
 25
```

           THE COURT: -- in New Hampshire?
   2
           MS. KAELBLEIN: He filed the chase -- case for custody in 5

           THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda, when did he -- when did you get served with the paperwork that Michael filed about 6
     the custody and possibly child support in New Hampshire? When 7 8 9
          MS. KAELBLEIN: Sometime in July.
 10
          THE COURT: You were served in July? Okay. And is there - 11 12
          MS. KAELBLEIN: For custody, Your Honor.
13
          THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda, please listen to my 14 question.
                My question to Amanda is this, are you aware of a Court date scheduled for the hearing on the case that Michael 15
16 17
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I am aware of a hearing that involves -- involves child custody, not child support.
18 19
          THE COURT: And when is that date of the hearing?
20
          MS. KAELBLEIN: November 15th.
          THE COURT: All right. And, Michael, you say that the case 21 that you filed is not just custody, but it's child support. Is 22 that what you're telling me, Michael?
23
          MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. I checked off all the boxes, Your 24

    Honor. Child support, custody, I got the paperwork right here -
```

```
THE COURT: He says -- Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, do you have a copy of the -- of the complaint that Michael filed in the 3
    Court in New Hampshire? Do you have that with you?
 4
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I might have it with me in my email.
 5
    There's a lot of things filed.
 6
         THE COURT: Well, didn't you get -- didn't you get filed -- 7 didn't you get served in person at your house with physical papers?

10
         MS. KAELBLEIN: No, I did not get served in person.
11
         MR. SPEIGHT: No, she was in Florida with the kid -- 12
         THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael, it's a question 13 to Amanda.
14
         So, Amanda -- 15
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I was not served in person.
          THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, please don't make

          MS. KAELBLEIN: I'm sorry. I was just answering your 18 19 question. I was not -- no, I was not served in person.
          THE COURT: So you were not served in person. So how did 20 you get served, Amanda?
21
          MS. KAELBLEIN: There was a letter in the mailbox.
22
          THE COURT: All right, so the service was by mail, but not 23 in your hand, but it was in your mailbox?
 24
          MS. KAELBLEIN: Correct.

         THE COURT: I'm going to get to your next Attorney Stephan, the mailbox? Do you have that in your house?

7 8
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I don't have it with me right now. No.
9
          THE COURT: But is it in your house? Can you locate it?
10
          MS. KAELBLEIN: Yes, I'd be able to locate it. Yes.
11
          THE COURT: All right, so why don't you step away from your 12 phone or your computer and go -- 13
          MS. KAELBLEIN: Judge, I'm at -- I'm at work right now, so 14
     I'm not at home.
15
           THE COURT: Oh, you're at work. Okay. All right.
           So, Michael, do you have a copy of the paperwork that was - 16
17
           MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, I have it. I have it, Your Honor, I can 18

 19
           THE COURT: All right, read it off to me.
 20
           MR. SPEIGHT: It says Temporary Petition, Request the Court

A parenting plan which describes parties' parental rights and 1 responsibilities where related to the minor child; child support 2 obligations for the minor child; and other custody. I 3 acknowledge and have continued duty to inform the Court, any 4 Court action in this, and any other state could affect the child's case. I swear that the full bearing information is true 6 and correct to the best of my knowledge. New Hampshire, 7 Rockingham County, June 3rd. 8 THE COURT: All right. And, Amanda, when -- when did you 9 notice those papers in your mailbox? 10 MS. KAELBLEIN: Sometime in July. 11 THE COURT: And when did you contact the Massachusetts 12 Department of Revenue for assistance in collecting child support 13 from Michael? 14 MS. KAELBLEIN: Before I received that paperwork, I called 15 them. I want to say June 6th, I think I called to check, it was 16 June 6th, and they asked if I wanted to reopen the case. I said 17 They called again to make sure I wanted to reopen the 18 case. I said yes. And then they called two weeks ago to say 19 that Michael wanted it moved to New Hampshire, and they asked if 20 I still wanted to proceed in Massachusetts, and I told them yes. 21 THE COURT: All right, so now, Attorney Stephan, let me ask 22 you this. What was the date of service on Michael? I think you 23 told me August 19th;, right? 24 MR. STEPHAN: Let me check, Judge. I've -- I've spoken to 25

Hampshire. He filed the complaint for parenting time in New Hampshire. And I went over this with his attorney. I had several conversations with him. Child support was not pled in New Hampshire. That's why we're going forward with it in Massachusetts. But I have spoken to his attorney about this at length, and he didn't plead that the Court enter an order for child support against him in New Hampshire. That's why we filed in Massachusetts.

THE COURT: So Michael, Attorney Stephan says that you

THE COURT: So Michael, Attorney Stephan says that you didn't mark the box that says child support.

MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, I have it right in front of me.

I did mark the box. I marked every box. This is my daughter, my five year old daughter. Yes. I want to take care of her.

THE COURT: All right. So what we're going to have to do is this, Michael -- Michael, what we're going to have to do is this, Michael and Amanda, I'm going to need a copy from the New Hampshire Court of the document that was actually filed by Michael to see whether he actually checked the box that says child support. And the reason is this, we can't have two different child support cases going on at the same time in two different states. If another state has already taken jurisdiction of the issue of child support, I'm not saying New Hampshire has or hasn't, then the child support issue would belong in the New Hampshire Court. I don't know what's accurate right now. Michael is telling me one thing. Attorney Stephan is telling me something else. Amanda agrees with Attorney Stephan that there was no child support request. Michael insists that there was in New Hampshire. So I'm not going to take any action right now about child support until I know definitively by getting a copy of the filing in New Hampshire by Michael to see whether he checked the child support box. So I'm going to continue this without any sort of order.

Attorney Stephan, I need you to get a copy of the filing in New Hampshire, and schedule another date and notify Amanda and Michael about the next date. Hopefully we'll get some clarity after we see that New Hampshire filing. All right?

Let me start with you, Amanda. Any questions you'd like to ask?

MS. KAELBLEIN: Yeah, my only question is, honestly, since this is about his daughter, I'm confused why he won't settle on paying money towards her through the system. It's either -- wherever it's out of, it's about her. And I just -- it's really disheartening to see that this is the combative behavior that I've been dealing with for the last six months.

THE COURT: Okay.

ı

MS. KAELBLEIN: So my question is timeline for when he has to get this information in just because I need this to -- he's been unreliable in the past. And so I need this order to be in place.

THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Amanda. When is the last time Michael paid the $200 he says he was voluntarily paying? MS. KAELBLEIN: He paid it last week. I asked him for it this week, and he did not send it to me, so. MR, SPEIGHT: That's not true, Your Honor. THE COURT: So as recently a week ago or so -- Michael -as recently as a week ago or so, Michael paid you $200 as he has for the past few months. Is that right, Amanda? MS, KAELBLEIN: Right, And so my question, can I ask again, Your Honor, is why he will not just settle on this so that I can go through the DOR, because this is about our 12 daughter? THE COURT: Michael, do you want to answer that? Go ahead. 13 14 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. First of all, I don't -- listen, I can 15 pay my own bills. I don't need the DOR to get involved in my 16 life; right? 17 THE COURT: Well --18 MR. SPEIGHT: I don't need the Court to be --19 THE COURT: So, Michael -- Michael -- Michael --20 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah. 21 THE COURT: So we're here. 22 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah. THE COURT: Amanda is trying to resolve this without 23 24 further Court activity, either here or New Hampshire or through 25 the Massachusetts DOR. She's asking, would you like to resolve

it and settle it right now?
         MR. SPEIGHT: I'll give her the 228, Your Honor, without 2 the DOR going into my check and taking the money. I'll pay 3 4 myself.
5
         THE COURT: Amanda, he says he'll pay you 228, but not going through DOR. What do you say?
6
7
        MS. KAELBLEIN: If I can ask just how that -- how that works, so that, like, what happens if he does not pay it? I 8 mean, I'm just confused why you won't go for -- through the DOR.
9 10 I'm talking to you on a personal level, Sean. This is about our child. This isn't very, very -- 11 12
         MR. SPEIGHT: Because Amanda, listen. I'll take -- Amanda, 13 I'll take care of my daughter. You know that. You lived with me, I paid all the bills.
14
15
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I know you -- I don't -- I'm not saying you won't -- I'm get -- trying to get along with you.
16
17
          MR. SPEIGHT: All right. So stop -- listen, so stop -- MS. KAELBLEIN: No, I'm trying to -- 18
          MR. SPEIGHT: Listen, so stop saying that -- please stop 19 saying that it's about our daughter, and I can't believe you -- 20
          THE COURT: All right. Nyle -- Nyle, could you put them 21 22
     both on mute, please?
 23
          THE CLERK: Yeah.
          THE COURT: All right. Let the record show 11:19 a.m.
 24
 25
     Judge has instructed our administrative assistant today to put both Amanda and Michael on mute, and what I'll do is I'll schedule this, you know, I don't know if there's a restraining order in effect between the two of you. If there is, then there shouldn't be any contact, or at least according to what the terms of the restraining order are. But I understand that Michael is willing to pay what Amanda wants, which is 228 per week, but Michael doesn't want to do it through the Department of Revenue. That would be an extra step. If, for example, Amanda agreed for Michael to pay the 228, but without going through the Department of Revenue, if he started to -- to miss some payments or if he wasn't paying the full 228, then Amanda could contact DOR and we'd be back in the same spot, of wondering whether it's New Hampshire or Massachusetts, which has jurisdiction over the child support issue.

of you, I would urge Amanda and Michael to try to resolve this either with or without the Department of Revenue. It's up to you. I understand that both of you want to be involved parents, there are high emotions going on right now. But again, it's up to you. If there's no restraining order, if you want to contact each other for the 228 with or without the Department of Revenue, that's between the two of you.

In the meantime, I am going to ask Attorney Stephan to get that copy of the -- of the New Hampshire Court filing to see whether the child support box was marked or not. Even if it wasn't, then we're here in Massachusetts dealing with the -- the 28 DOR case, which is why we're here today. 2 3 MR. STEPHAN: Judge, if I could just add something. 4 THE COURT: What? 5 MR. STEPHAN: If Your Honor -- if Your Honor wanted to enter an order today for $228 a week by suspended wage 6 assignment, that means he's to pay her directly. But if he 7 doesn't pay her directly, mother can request that it be by wage 8 assignment, and we can start doing it by wage assignment. 9 long as he pays faithfully 228 a week, he doesn't have to have 10 DOR involved. But if he doesn't, mother can request that it be 11 by wage assignment, and then we would become involved. 12 13 THE COURT: So even if it's suspended wage assignment, that means that the DOR case is still on the table, Attorney Stephan; 14 15 MR. STEPHAN: There would be a Court order in place, but it 16 would be a non-4D case, which means it would be a state case 17 registry only case. So it would be on our system that there's 18 an order in effect for $228 a week, but he's going to pay her 19 directly, so we just have a record of the order on our computer 20 system. However, if he doesn't pay her faithfully $228 a week, 21 mother can contact the Department and ask that we implement a 22 23 wage assignment, which we will do. THE COURT: All right. 24 MR. STEPHAN: So as long as he pays, he's fine. 25

THE COURT: Michael, I hope you understood that. And Amanda as well. Even though it would still be technically a DOR case, the payments would not go through DOR. The 228 would be 3 paid directly by Michael to Amanda. I don't know if that's 4 something that's acceptable to you or not, Michael or Amanda.
          Let me start with Amanda first. If you could take Amanda 6 off mute first, Nyle.
 7
 8
          THE COURT: Yeah.
 9
          THE COURT: So, Amanda Attorney Stephan has suggested what he just suggested, is that something acceptable to you or not?
10 11
         MS. KAELBLEIN: I feel as though that's acceptable, so it'll remain open, and then he pays me in good faith. And then 12 if he doesn't, then yeah.
13
14
          THE COURT: Okay. All right. So the answer is yes. right. So, Nyle, put Amanda back on mute, please, and Michael - 15 16
     - and Nyle, take Michael off of mute.
          And, Michael, is that something acceptable to you or not?
17
     You'd be paying Amanda directly, but technically, the DOR case 18 would still be open, but as long as you paid, we wouldn't be 19 back here by Zoom or any other way.
20 21
         Michael, what do you say?
         MR. SPEIGHT: I'll pay it. But, Your Honor, can I say one 22 23
    thing, sir?
24
         THE COURT: Go ahead.
         MR. SPEIGHT: I haven't seen my child, and this is going on 25
```

```
1 six months.
        THE COURT: All right, so you've -- 2
        MR. SPEIGHT: And I've been paying her the whole time.
3
        THE COURT: You've got a case, -- apparently, Michael, you 4 get a case. Both of you admit you've got a case in New 5
   Hampshire going on about custody and parenting time. There's a 6 7
   dispute about whether it's child support or not, but if you file 8 that case, and if not, how long you been here -- put Michael 9 back on
    -- on mute, Nyle, and take Amanda off mute.
10 11
         Amanda, how long you been back to Massachusetts with the 12 child?
13
        MS. KAELBLEIN: I've been back since May. And, you know, it's -- so we'll figure out parenting, obviously, but her 14 15 schooling and everything.
16
         THE COURT: So has it been -- has it been -- has it been 17 more than six months?
         MS. KAELBLEIN: Mine and her legal residence has always 18 been Massachusetts. We resided with him for a short period of 19 20 time.
         THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda, please -- 21
22
         MS. KAELBLEIN: That's how it is.
         THE COURT: Answer my question. Has it -- 23
24
         MS. KAELBLEIN: It's been for the last six months.
25
          THE COURT: Amanda -- put her -- put her on -- put her on mute again, please. I think we've reached a productive end to our conversation.

Hampshire filing and schedule this for a review date, and I'll consider whether to enter a temporary order or not, with or without a suspended wage assignment. And that will come in the mail to the parties in roughly seven days or so. I've been doing this for a while now. I've heard thousands of cases, and I can count on less than two hands the number of times I've had to put people on mute during the hearing. It's unfortunate I've had to do it in this case to maintain order in this hearing, unfortunately. But I do wish both of you well. Stay safe and healthy. I hope you get the custody parenting time case resolved in New Hampshire. Ultimately, it's about the child. And good luck to both of you. And, Attorney Stephan, you'll schedule another date for the hearing if we need it. Thank you very much. It's 11:26 a.m. Hearing is concluded.
